TEAMS WILL PLAY
FOR BIG SIDE BET

At Lake and Occidentals Get Together for Next Sunday Game.

Manager Hayden of the Occidental ball club said Wednesday that he had not heard from the Salt Lake team yet and says that he still has $100,000 which he would like to see covered before next Sunday's game. Hayden says he is confident the colored boys will beat the line-up Margetta had in field last Sunday or any other line he can secure.

No new men arrived for the Occidentals Thursday night. The only new man, "Smoky" Wilson, could not be secured, as he has signed up to play in the coming summer, but Hayden says he has got a pitcher equally as good.

Port Margetta was seen last night and asked why he did not cover the bet offered by Manager Hayden. He said that he would get the boys together Thursday and make up the winning team to take the gate receipts and side bet.

This ought to be one of the most interesting games of the season. The Salt Lake team was so much stronger in the first team last Sunday that it seems to be in a class by itself. The Occidentals have been adding strength to their team and are an up-and-down quantity, but are willing to risk themselves for $500, and must win something up their sleeve. This game defeated the Dubel Tailors in a game last year and Manager Hayden says he has a much stronger aggregation for Sunday.

FIVE RACE MEETS
FOR BICYCLE RIDERS

Heagren Signs Up for Ogden
Track to Promote the Popular Sport.

H. B. Heagren, who managed the Ogden bicycle track last year, has signed up again for the coming season with Manager Grant, lessee of Greenwood Park in Ogden. Heagren says that there is no one connected with him in the deal and he will give a good race meet every week throughout the season. He says that he will announce his programme in a few days and sign up the riders for some track day night. He at first thought of running Sundays, but believes he can draw a larger crowd on a week day.

With the Ogden track running once a week and the Salt Lake and Salt Valley tracks giving two meets each per week, the bicycle riders will have five race meets per week to ride at and this will keep them bustling. Should the tracks continue to run throughout the entire season over $40,000 will be given to the riders, as against $10,000 last year. This large amount of money will not only hold all the riders that are here now but will bring in many from the outside. While the situation looked a trifle gloomy at the opening of spring, the managers are now confident that the tracks will make more money than ever.

PROVO PEOPLE WANT
PROFESSIONAL BALL

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, April 29.—But little was accomplished at tonight's baseball meeting. A committee of which Burt Snoot is the chairman was appointed to hold a conference with the business men and Commercial club for the purpose of raising enough money to put in a team and guarantee a series of games. The committee also agreed to petition the city council to allow Sunday baseball. As Snoot was a member of the committee and he who was present, the other names were not announced until it is known whether or not they will act on the committee.

For week day games the B. Y. U. diamond can be secured but as this is a religious school, it is doubtful whether a day half would be allowed on the grounds. The only other available place would be the horse track, which is fenced in, but a diamond would have to be put in. This could be done at little expense.

FLYNN ARRIVES AND LEAVES FOR PUEBLO

"Tim" Flynn, one of the best middle-heavyweights in the ring today, spent several hours in the city Wednesday to visit friends and left at 2 p. m. for his home in Pueblo, Colo. While he will take a rest of about two months, Flynn says he has been in training so long that he needs no rest, as he is getting ready to take a rest of about two months. He believes that two months will make a new man out of him, and at the expiration of that time he will return to the Pacific coast ready to box any man in the business.

Flynn will make another trial for the heavyweight championship. He lost to Tommy Burns on an unintentional foul in the fifteenth round of a twenty-round fight at the best of the fight, and believes that he can do the same thing again, cutting out the foul. Flynn says he can hit harder than Burns, and would like another chance at him.
